Program of Exercises Announced. Contributors to Shipment

[Special to Times-Dispatch.]
Charlottesville, Va., June 7.—President Edwin A. Alderman announced to-day the program of the unveiling of Ezeklel's monument of Jefferson, which now stands in the square on the north side of the rotunca at the University of Virginia.

The exercises are to take place immediately after the conferring of degrees and other closing exercises of the session, which begin at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning, June 15. From Cabell Hall, where these exercises will take place, the board of visitors, faculty and officers and guests of the University of Virginia will proceed to the monument.

University of Virginia will proceed to the monument.

United States Senator Thomas Stacles Martin, who was a classmate of the sculptor at the Virginia Military Institute, and who, with him, went with the cadet corps to the battle of New Market, will present the gift to the University of Virginia, and the president of that institution will receive it. Daniel Harmon, of this city, will deliver an address as a representative of the board of visitors. It is expected that Sir Moses will also have something to say. The vell will be drawn from the monument by a young son of Dr. William M. Bandolph, of this city, a lineal descendant of Thomas Jefferson.

Sir Moses Ezekiel will be the guest of the president of the university. The gift was entirely that of Sir Moses, except that alumni and friends of the university have paid the expense of transshipment from Rome to Charlottesville, and that of putting the monument in place. This has amounted to about $5,000. The contributors of this fund are Mrs. Thomas Nelson Page, of Washington, D. C., $1,000; George C. Thomas, of Philadel-phia, $1,000; Mortimer Schiff, Isador Straus, M. Taylor Payne and Frank L. Chambers, of New York, $200 each; George W. Perkins, of New York, $500; Gr. N.
